About the Artworks

The artists in this collection have been hand-selected by five eminent judges: Matthew Burrows MBE, Leslie De Canchy, Matthew Olivier, Conor Rush, and Bronwen Sleigh RSA. Together, they bring expertise spanning international art markets, curating, publishing, and artistic practice, ensuring each selected artist has been recognised for their excellence and originality.

The artists represented here are at all stages of their careers, working across painting, printmaking, and mixed media. Their practices explore many aspects of life and thought, united under the theme of Materiality. Collectively, these artworks represent an extraordinary survey of contemporary practice – a striking, dynamic and thought-provoking collection that highlights the richness and ambition of today's creative voices.

About the Artworks

Alongside the selected exhibitors, Materiality also features a number of Guest Artists; individuals whose involvement has been fundamental to the growth of No Place Art and to the success of this first edition. Each has contributed in meaningful ways: from judging and lending their expertise, to introducing No Place Art to key collaborators, to stepping in at vital moments to help bring the exhibition into reality. Their presence in Materiality is both a celebration of their artistry and a gesture of thanks from No Place Art for the trust, support, and generosity they have shown in helping shape this platform.
